It is with great sadness we announce after 10 years of fun and merriment, Playland-Not-at-the-Beach is closing. Unfortunately, like the original Playland at the Beach, we will be making room for housing. In this case it is apartments not condos. In another eerily similar repeat of history we are closing on Labor Day, as did our namesake park.

Playland-Not-at-the-Beach was a dream started by Richard Tuck in the late 1990's and opened May 30, 2008. Over the years, Richard Tuck, Tim Sauer, and Frank Biafore, assisted by many, many dedicated volunteers, hosted thousands of guests at Playland-Not-at-the-Beach.

Come visit us for one last time before we close. Come say “goodbye” and experience a little bit of San Francisco history and enjoy the excitement at “Museum of Fun”. Experience the 30+ pinball games, carnival skill games, dioramas celebrating Halloween and the Yuletide season, and miniature circuses, including the Marcks Family Miniature Circus one last time. The smiles you leave at Playland-Not-at-the-Beach will live on and be a lasting remembrance of our lost “Museum of Fun”, Playland-Not-at-the-Beach.

We will be open for guests every day through Labor Day (September 3rd)

Monday through Friday 12 – 5pm; Saturday and Sunday 10am – 5pm

Tuesday night, August 14th – 6:00 pm – 10:00 pm

Thursday night, August 30th – 6:00 pm – 10:00 pm
